FIELDHAVEN ASSISTING ANIMAL EVACUEES OF KING FIRE

Placer County Animal Services (PCAS) is preparing to open their shelter to animal evacuees of the King Fire. The limited space at PCAS could become full quickly especially if the fire were to move into Foresthill or other populated Placer County areas.

PCAS has asked FieldHaven to assist by providing space for currently sheltered animals and overflow of evacuated cats. We are reaching out to animal lovers to help by fostering or adopting a FieldHaven cat to relieve space in our own shelter.

“FieldHaven’s shelter will allow us to transfer cats currently in our shelter so that we may prepare and expand our available space for the possibility of housing evacuated animals” said Anna Piland, Sr. Supervising Animal Control Officer

If you would like to adopt a cat or can provide a short term foster home to allow space for an evacuated pet please contact FieldHaven at 916-434-6022 or email info@fieldhaven.com. Visit our website at www.fieldhaven.com.
